

Woody Larson Biography

Woody is a native to South Florida and an Okeechobee resident since graduating from UF in 1973. He and his wife Grace have three dairy farms (2 in Okeechobee and 1 in Mayo, FL). In addition they have a cow/calf operation in Okeechobee, The Dixie Ranch. They have three grown children and four grandchildren.

Woody believes in giving back to the industry. He serves in the following organizations: Florida Cattleman's Association, Southeast Milk Inc., Farm Credit and has served on the Florida Beef Council. He is a past member of the Cattlemen's Beef Board and National Milk Producers on the national level. The University of Florida recognized Woody as a Distinguished Alumnus in 2007. Go Gators!