RE: NOMINATIONS FOR HONORARY DIRECTORS

Nominations for outstanding cattlemen to be selected as Honorary Directors for the Florida Cattlemen's Association are being accepted now. We request that each county submit one nomination for Honorary Director each year.

To be eligible for this distinction, one must be nominated by his/her county association, have passed the generally recognized retirement age of 65, and must have been active and prominent in the work of the Florida Cattlemen's Association.

The local county association, in submitting recommendations of a proposed Honorary Director, is also required to submit a case history of his/her accomplishments in the pursuit of livestock farming; with a summary of the contribution made to the livestock industry. One application per county will be accepted each year.

Each Honorary Director will receive only two tickets to the banquet the night the award is to be received. Other family members or their representatives will have the opportunity to purchase additional event tickets. County Associations may elect to pay dues for their Honorary Directors, but this is solely the decision of each county association.

All recommendations, case history, and supporting information on prospective Honorary Directors must be submitted in writing to the FCA office in Kissimmee. Photographs can be original or high quality digital images

If your nominee is approved to receive this award, you will receive a secondary packet in the mail for the complete history, photographs and other supporting information.

NOMINATIONS MUST BE POST MARKED NO LATER THAN APRIL 1
